

Roxanne Decyk

Roxanne Decyk has taken on the role of Corporate Affairs Director for the Royal Dutch Shell Group of Companies. In this capacity, she oversees regional business coordination, global government affairs, communications, policy, security and HSE for the $330 Billion energy company. Prior to this position, she led strategy for RD/Shell and served as SVP for corporate affairs and human resources for Shell Oil Company. Earlier in her career she held senior positions in the oil and automotive industries and practiced law.

Roxanne has served on corporate boards in the US and UK over the past 20 years and is active in international women's organizations. She is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.