

THE CHICAGO NETWORK

Edith H Falk

Edith Falk's career spans more than 40 years in non-profit institutional advancement. As CEO of Campbell & Company, a national consulting firm serving non-profit organizations, she designed and provided strategic counsel on fundraising and marketing communications programs for a broad spectrum of organizations in the arts, education, healthcare, conservation and human service fields. Since retiring from that role, she has continued to provide strategic counsel to non-profit organizations as the principal of Falk Consulting. She is currently Board Vice Chair for American Councils for International Education and Board Chair for the American Writers Museum.. She earned her B.A. degree at Oberlin College in Ohio and her M.B.A. degree at Northwestern University, Kellogg School of Management, both with honors.