

Lindsay C. Jenkins

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

ASSISTANT UNITED STATES ATTORNEY

2006—present

Chief, Violent Crimes Section (July 2018—present)

Former Chief, General Crimes Section

Former Deputy Chief in Public Corruption and Organized Crime, Violent Crimes, Narcotics & Gangs, and General Crimes Sections

- Directly supervise the work of more than 25 line prosecutors and 4 deputy chiefs in all aspects of federal criminal practice; provide final approval for the filing of criminal charges and final approval for proposed plea agreements; oversee an 18-week in-house training program for new prosecutors; liaison with members of the judiciary concerning a wide variety of matters.
- Tried 20 jury and bench trials. Briefed and argued multiple appeals before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.
- Lead prosecutor for a broad range of investigations including public corruption; bribery; extortion; healthcare grant fraud; theft of trade secret; computer intrusion; civil rights violations; mortgage fraud; investment fraud; mail, wire, and bank fraud; money laundering; threats; narcotics conspiracies and criminal street gangs. Successfully litigated numerous pretrial matters and sentencing hearings.
- Conduct investigations involving numerous law enforcement and regulatory agencies including the Federal Bureau of Investigation; Department of Health and Human Services; National Institutes of Health; Department of Labor; and Internal Revenue Service.

Representative prosecutions include:

United States v. Barbara Byrd-Bennett, et al.

Prosecution of the former Chicago Public Schools CEO for steering CPS contracts to her previous employer in exchange for kickbacks.

United States v. Aldo Brown

Prosecution of a Chicago Police Department officer for a civil rights violation by excessive force.

United States v. Eugene Mullins et al.

Prosecution of an extortion and bribery scheme by the Cook County Director of Public Affairs involving multiple no-bid service contracts awarded by Cook County.

United States v. Yihao Pu, et al.

Prosecution of theft of trade secrets, wire fraud, computer intrusion, and obstruction in a corporate espionage case involving two international high frequency trading firms.

United States v. Patrick Glenn

Prosecution of a real estate developer who defrauded two banks of approximately $13 million in connection with land and construction loans for commercial properties throughout Chicago.

United States v. Dana Merino

Prosecution of death threats against executives of a sporting goods manufacturer related to a civil dispute over a licensing agreement.

JONES DAY
ASSOCIATE (Cleveland)

2004—2006

- Represented and advised clients in a variety of civil litigation matters with an emphasis on corporate criminal and internal investigations. Representative matters included an investigation into expenditures by a Fortune 100 company on behalf of public officials for compliance with state and federal anti-gratuity statutes and regulations, defending a major pharmacy chain in a Department of Justice investigation into multiple violations of the Controlled Substances Act, and an investigation into accounting irregularities by a Fortune 1000 corporation.
- Assisted with various civil pretrial matters including researching and drafting various discovery documents, motions to dismiss, motions for summary judgment and settlement agreements.
- Researched a variety of legal issues and assisted in depositions and client meetings.
- Served as lead counsel for a major credit reporting agency in Fair Credit Reporting Act cases.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
LAW CLERK TO THE HONORABLE SOLOMON OLIVER, JR. 2002—2004

- Given significant research and writing responsibility for civil and criminal matters including dispositive motions, temporary restraining orders, preliminary and permanent injunctions, discovery related matters and various pre- and post-trial motions. Assisted with a variety of contested hearings, settlement conferences, death penalty petitions and sentencing hearings. Advised the Judge on evidentiary issues and assisted with voir dire and jury instructions during numerous civil and criminal trials.
- Supervised judicial externs with responsibility for assigning and evaluating extern projects, revising draft orders and memos, and working closely with externs one-on-one to finalize written products for the Judge's review.

PROFESSIONAL AWARDS

- Department of Homeland Security, Office of Inspector General, Commendation – 2017
- United States Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division Commendation – 2016
- Chicago Crime Commission Criminal Justice Award – 2016 and 2012

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- Legal Aid Society, Simple Divorce Program volunteer
- Chicago Public Schools, Lawndale Community Academy mock trial instructor and coach
- Cleveland Summer Legal Academy, Founding Member. Developed an annual two-week summer institute for inner-city minority high school students consisting of a panel speaker series, writing seminars and field trips to points of interest aimed at encouraging students to pursue law related careers and professions.

THE CHICAGO NETWORK

EDUCATION

CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY, CLEVELAND, OHIO Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, JD, summa cum laude	2002
MIAMI UNIVERSITY OF OHIO, OXFORD, OHIO Bachelor of Science in Business	1998

BAR ADMISSIONS

Ohio 2002
Illinois 2009