
Geraldine Keefe

Investment Banking

Chicago

Geraldine is co-head of Investment Banking for the Midwest Region and a member of the Industrials Group within the Investment Banking Division. She joined Goldman Sachs in 2000 as an analyst on the UK Advisory team in London and transferred to the Industrials Group in San Francisco in 2004. After leaving in 2006 to pursue an MBA, Geraldine rejoined the firm in 2008 as a member of the Americas Special Situations Group in the Securities Division in New York, where she worked on minority equity investments in privately owned businesses. Geraldine returned to the Industrials Group in 2009 and was named vice president the same year. She was named managing director in 2013 and partner in 2016.

Geraldine serves on the Board of Trustees of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and on the Posse Foundation Chicago Advisory Board.

She earned a master's degree in aerospace engineering from Bristol University in 2000 and an MBA, with high distinction, from Harvard Business School in 2008.

