

Nina Hancock

President & Design Principal
Hancock & Hancock Inc.

Ms Hancock serves as President and Design Principal of Hancock and Hancock Inc. Her Interior Design/Interior Architecture career in commercial, health care and residential work encompasses over 26 highly productive years.

Ms Hancock is a gifted and talented designer with a high level of expertise in the planning, design and management of large scale, long term projects. Her work includes substantial high profile projects of more than 1 million square feet in area with multi-million dollar construction and furnishings budgets.

Nina is the recipient of numerous design awards and is very active in the Chicago Design and Real Estate Communities. She is an excellent communicator and is a frequent speaker on topics such as Office Design, Health Care Design and the Use of Art In Interiors.

Ms Hancock is a charismatic "team leader" with the ability to inspire the very best from project design teams. She is actively involved with the day-to-day design work, project management and administrative activity of Hancock & Hancock to guarantee that our clients receive the very highest standards of service.