

THE CHICAGO NETWORK

Kelly Graves

An agency leader with over 20 years of experience, Kelly recognizes the powerful role that creativity can play when it comes to solving the most challenging business problems.

Known for her straight forward approach, commitment to results, and relentless pursuit of the big idea, clients look to Kelly for recommendations that maximize the interests of both the business and the brand.

As the CEO of FCB Chicago, Kelly is responsible for leading FCB's largest office, setting a vision for growth, and delivering on that vision through talent, technology, and most importantly creativity.