

Patricia O'Neil

Senior Vice President & System CFO, Rush University System for Health

A strategic and results-driven SENIOR FINANCE EXECUTIVE and TOP CORPORATE OFFICER, specializing in the non-profit healthcare industry. Comprehensive expertise in managing a complex $3.2B academic medical center system and health sciences university. Recent experience includes building a long-term financial plan to support unprecedented investment in key service line investments and ambulatory growth. Initiatives included building a team and decision support/ODB systems focused on supporting the operations of the enterprise to provide data-driven, financial insights. Further accomplishments include implementation of several national joint ventures and partnerships for targeted services. Focus on expense and systemization efficiencies also created over $75M recurring value. Have successfully executed all capital raising initiatives, investor relations, and rating affirmations. Highly focused and purposeful in supporting operations and long-term strategic goals. Flexible, organized, and able to manage change, with proven project management skills. Proven aptitude in building highly productive and expert diverse teams with superior interpersonal and communication skills.