

Gina Berndt

Gina Berndt serves as the Global Interior Design Discipline Leader driving vision and strategy in order to develop the strength and breadth of our Interior Design practice. For more than 30 years, Gina has led teams to deliver design solutions that delight clients, meet their functional parameters and exceed their expectations. With her singular focus on interiors, she is acutely in tune with the trends that affect how people work, live, learn and heal. A consummate leader and mentor, Gina's insight and instincts have helped cultivate talented, interdisciplinary interior design teams who have been recognized with numerous awards, publications and loyal repeat clients.

Gina received her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Interior Design from Northern Illinois University in DeKalb, Illinois and also studied at the University of Copenhagen. She is a member of the American Society of Interior Designers, past President of the Chicago chapter of Commercial Real Estate Executive Women and has served on the board and executive committee for the Girl Scouts of Chicago.
